The visual depicts the ambitions of the diverse runners upon completing the 42.195 km race. The runners are exhausted and hurting after giving their all, but they are also filled with a sense of accomplishment, and perhaps they've even seen a new side of Tokyo, one they've never encountered before. We're aiming to make this the world's most welcoming and warm-hearted marathon so that everyone can be true to themselves, performing to their fullest safely and with peace of mind.

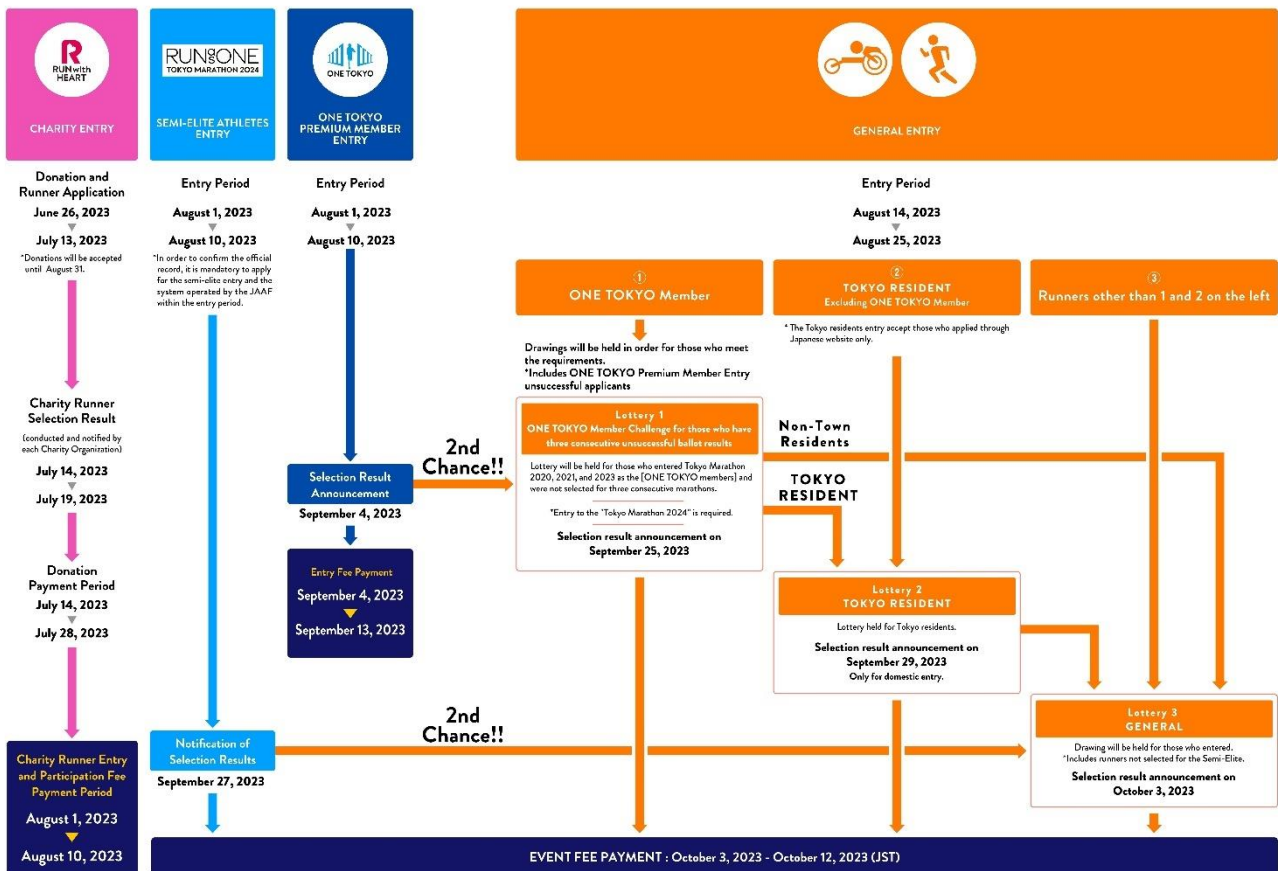

We strive to provide a warm and friendly race for all the people involved in the Tokyo Marathon, making it "My Favorite Place" more than anywhere else in the world.
